DuffyGroup, Inc., extends their Lean Six Sigma expertise with the addition of Richard Booton

PHOENIX, AZ / January 10, 2008 / -- DuffyGroup, Inc., known as a respected sourcing and recruitment organization for over 16 years, has just strengthened their presence in the process improvement arena. With the addition of Richard Booton, they now boast additional expertise and experience in this niche area of sourcing and recruitment.

Booton brings almost three decades of experience in the executive search field to the DuffyGroup team. He has completed search assignments ranging from consultants and individual contributors to executive level positions with Fortune 100 and privately held firms. Booton's area of expertise centers on seeking and placing executives with working knowledge and expertise in Lean/Six Sigma. Lean/Six Sigma is a management methodology that applies process improvement measures, improving productivity, and increasing efficiencies to all areas of business.

Booton says, "...the opportunity to be part of such a respected and valued team is an honor. I look forward to contributing to DuffyGroup's success within the Six Sigma arena. There are companies out there that need professionals that are well versed in process improvement methodologies, and combining our networks will provide us a great opportunity to find the right people for the right position. It truly is all human as the DuffyGroup brand communicates."
